The AHCU: a return to the mission

DAN CLAY
President, Local 555

There's some big news in health care. In case you haven't heard, 21 locals left the Coalition of Kaiser Permanente Unions in late March due to what could be described as irreconcilable differences. These 21 unions came together to form a new alliance, known as The Alliance of Health Care Unions (AHCU), which will be run by Executive Director Peter diCicco. This is an exciting time and it matters, very much, that the AHCU will be able to govern and bargain more effectively, ultimately providing better representation for its members. This change allows the alliance to amplify the voices of all represented unions, not just the largest or the loudest among us.

A group such as the AHCU is most powerful when operating by consensus and collaboration, and Peter diCicco (who happens to be the founder of the original Coalition) represents such a shift. With diCicco as Execu-

Peter diCicco
AHCU Executive Director

utive Director, we're seeing a return to the days of yore, a return to the values and goals that originally built this groundbreakingly successful partnership between Kaiser and its represented employees.

Something else important of note is the stability that we still have, even in this time of change. I'm speaking of the LMP (Labor-Management Partnership). We, as part of the new alliance, are still in the LMP, and in our current national agreement. Our members retain the right (the obligation, even) to continue to attend and contribute to meetings and work collaboratively with all of our brothers and sisters, even those who stayed in the original coalition.

Here's to some highly anticipated future successes as the AHCU magnifies our collective voices on behalf of our Kaiser members.

In unity,

Dan Clay

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Unity Negotiations, 2018

MIKE MARSHALL
Executive Director & Lead Negotiator

Unity Negotiations are underway! This team of member activists were nominated and selected to ensure that members from a variety of locations, contract types, departments, and companies would represent us at the table.

The team met together in the Tigard office on April 4th to discuss expectations, goals, and survey results, and have committed to negotiations with a focus on contract improvements that include sustainable hours and wages. Our united vision is to achieve a contract that improves the lives of our members, coworkers, and families, which will in turn strengthen our community.

We will update everyone again after bargaining dates have been set. Please stay informed and stay connected, and be sure to support your community by proudly wearing our union buttons. Get your buttons from your bargaining team or from your Union Rep.

In solidarity,

Mike Marshall

May 12th: Help Stamp Out Hunger!

KELLEY MCALLISTER
Communications
Director

Saturday May 12th is the 26th anniversary of the National Association of Letter Carrier's Stamp Out Hunger food drive to support community members in need. Local 555 is proud to partner with NALC and the Oregon Food Bank for this drive, during which letter carriers across the country collect food donations along their mail delivery routes. The goal for this massive single day event? One million pounds of food for Oregon and SW Washington. How can you help?

DONATE FOOD: Watch for the Stamp Out Hunger bag in the mail and fill it with donations to set outside your door on Saturday, May 12th. Consider the Food Bank's most desired items: self-stable milk, rice, beans, tuna, peanut butter, almond butter, canned tomatoes, cooking oil, whole grain cereal, and pasta.

DONATE FUNDS: If you prefer to donate funds, you should still keep an eye out for the Stamp Out Hunger bag in the mail...but instead of filling it with food, check out the website donation options printed on the bag. Donations will be accepted starting May 1st.

VOLUNTEER: If you want to donate time in addition to (or instead of) food or funds, you are more than welcome! Check out volunteer opportunities at oregonfoodbank.org/NALC.

Keep in touch with us via Facebook (facebook.com/UFCWLocal555) and Twitter (@ufcw555); we'll keep reminding you as we get closer to the day. All food and funds raised benefits the Oregon Food Bank Network. Thanks for working with us to make this the biggest Stamp Out Hunger event yet!

“ I really appreciate the union dental insurance plan. Recently I needed to switch from one plan to another. I was having difficulty figuring out how to switch. I called the union for help and just like that I was able to switch. Thank you, Local 555. ”

JAMES COOPER, BETHANY QFC

“ Hi! My name is Brett Ninneman and I'm a meat cutter at QFC store #212, Vancouver, WA. I've been cutting meat there for the last 2 years and have worked in retail grocery since 2007. I've worked my way up from courtesy clerk then to checker, produce clerk, and then in the meat department as a wrapper, and now a cutter. I really appreciate having the union insurance covering myself and my wife and it's good to know that when we decide to start a family it will cover all of us for $25.00 a week. In my years working in retail I've never had to be represented, but it's good to know they are there if needed. I also have a brother who is a meat cutter (Cary Ninneman, also working for QFC in store #205 in Portland), so we have a bit of a family affair with QFC and meat cutting. Overall I'm happy with what has been negotiated with our contracts in the past but would like to see the pay gap increased between newbies and journeymen, and I'm looking forward to upcoming talks. In closing, I think we need to get more involved in our union, including myself. I think they are doing a great job protecting what's important to us, our livelihood! ”

BRETT NINNEMAN, VANCOUVER QFC

“ My name is Elizabeth Bonaventura. I have worked at Fred Meyer Newberg for 9 years. I had never had any problems before so I never really needed the union's help. However, recently I was terminated. I met with the union and we filed a grievance. The union was able to win the grievance and I am very happy to say I am going back to work. ”

ELIZABETH BONAVENTURA, NEWBERG FRED MEYER

“ I love the union and what it does for us members. We work hard and so does the union. Because of them I can take care of my family. Thank you, 555! ”

MARIA REYES
LLOYD CETNER SAFEWAY

“ I've been a UFCW member since 2000, and I've seen a lot of changes since that time. Of the positive changes that I've seen, the passage of the First Day Sick Pay law was one of the biggest. I appreciate the new law because you don't feel forced to come into work sick anymore. You don't have to make a choice between getting paid and getting other people sick. I really look forward to the Fair Work Week law going into effect— I'm optimistic that it will be a really positive change for the workers! ”

WALT CHRISTEN, BEAVERTON BALES THRIFTWAY

“ I've been a UFCW 555 member since March 2017. I have to say I love the security I have with this union. I'm glad we have the mandatory pay raises that the company has to give us. The insurance is amazing and so much cheaper than any other place I've seen!! I had thought about going back to work in the dentistry profession but it was too expensive to cover myself, my husband, and kids. That has played a huge role in my decision to stay here with union benefits because I can afford the coverage!! ”

NATASHA MURPHY
COOS BAY FRED MEYER

Congratulations to Bonnie Dahill for 10 years of employment at Albertsons in Grants Pass! She would like to see a wage increase for long term Courtesy Clerks. Bonnie says, "Be active, stay strong, go UFCW 555!"

BONNIE DAHILL

"To me being a Steward is about helping my fellow co-workers not only know their rights, but exercise them when appropriate! Before I became a Steward, I was at a place in my job where I felt hopeless, down, and ready to find another job. It was then by happenstance that I was invited to the 2017 Leadership Conference where I learned about what a steward is/does. Knowing my store didn't have one, I jumped on the opportunity to not only better the store for myself, but for everyone else who has become a member before me, and all of those who come after. I now wake up ready to go to work and excited knowing that I have made this into a career, and not just my job. I love being a part of Local 555, knowing I am making a difference. I even got a tattoo of a pink donut with chocolate stripes and a 555 inside, with the words "A voice for working America" around it as a dedication and commitment to 555. Thank you United Food & Commercial Workers! Let's rock this, together we can make a difference. People helping people is what it's all about. (Not the hokey pokey like we've all been led to believe. Lol)"

MARY LAZARD, LEBANON SAFEWAY

"For a few years now I've been pro-union because I see that it protects workers and is for the greater good. I appreciate having someone to go to if I'm in a tough situation. I've been following "Right to Work," and I really hope it doesn't pass—we need to have employees' and workers' interests in mind, not the interests of big corporations!"

HEATHER CAMPBELL
RALEIGH HILLS FRED MEYER

"I have always been a union supporter! I am from a multi-generational Union family. The union has the working man's back."

SHIRLIE SMITH, LAKEVIEW SAFEWAY

Barbara never thought she would be terminated. She was surprised and devastated when it happened, but she talked to her Shop Steward and got UFCW Local 555 on the case. She is back to work and happy to be helping customers!

BARBARA BAY, EAST SALEM FRED MEYER

Meet Sam, a proud member of Local 555. Sam has been working at Gateway Fred Meyer since May of 2016. During the survey season, Sam started telling co-workers to complete our bargaining survey because, "the union is the only reason we have protections at all!"

SAM GENTZ, GATEWAY
FRED MEYER

“ My name is Andrea Anderson and I’m a steward at Kaiser’s Mail Order Pharmacy. We are fighting for a fair contract by showing management we are unified. Joining with the other Unions at Kaiser, we are circulating petitions that lay out our priorities. Everyone I work with signed!

ANDREA ANDERSON, KAISER’S MAIL ORDER PHARMACY

“ I like being in the union because I know that there’s always someone fighting for me and helping me when I need it. The benefits are great. And overall it’s just good knowing that I’m not alone.

LOGAN T.
OREGON CITY SAFEWAY

Brian McKenzie and Wendy Johnson of Fulton Provision celebrate as negotiations wrap up. These two fought hard for their fellow union brothers and sisters by serving on their bargaining committee. They walked away with hard wage increases every year, increases to their pension plan, increased time off for senior employees, and caps on any potential medical increases. Importantly, they also walked away with a sense of pride knowing that they had the full backing and solidarity of their fellow union members. They have committed to continuing the work of building their union and taking the first steps to becoming shop stewards. Congrats to all the members at Fulton Provision Company.
